MISSIONS

Thanks to those who donated and made purchases at the Mission Market Place. Additional thanks to all who worked to make this happen. You still have an opportunity to buy items. So far, we have made over $700 and counting to add to our mission fund. After the Cookie Walk and when it comes time to put all our monies together, we will have the privilege of giving to organizations who help people in need. Once again, we are grateful to everyone for making this possible.

“Our Story is God’s Story”

Sunday, December 14th, was a special day for the congregation. We embraced two beautiful gifts, two Bibles. We blessed both by retiring the old one and commissioning the new one. The removal of one Bible from our sacred place of worship and the placement of the other Bible in our sanctuary brought to my mind how this holy book is a holy novel. Like any novel it tells a beautiful story for all to read and hear. The Holy Bible—God’s Holy Novel guides us in how to live our lives. Sometimes the stories are clearly intentional by moral and instructional messages. At other times, the messages are not so obvious only incidentally derived from the stories, like the story of the manna which fell from heaven, where we confirm the munificence of God and the power to follow Him. Through the story of Jesus and Mary Magdalene, we discover sinners are redeemable. The intent of God’s novel is for all of us to learn about God and about ourselves.

I want to thank the Family of John M. McCormick (December 23, 1878-February 13, 1961) for blessing our congregation with the Holy Bible for these past decades. Please know it lies in a new sacred place under glass next to the church’s memorial book. I want to thank Debbie Minard, family, and friends, for the memorial gift of the new communion table Bible given in memory of her loving husband, Rob Minard (April 30, 1956-July 6, 2025). May we continue to be blessed for many more decades with its usage of telling us God’s sacred and divine stories in creating every person’s life in becoming a novel of worth.

Shalom,
Pastor Scott
